

NEAG SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
University of Connecticut

Learning, Leading, Lighting the Way

In the News

April 10, 2007

Storrs, Conn. - Joseph Madaus, an assistant professor in the Neag School of Education's Department of Educational Psychology, has been selected by the American Association of University Professors - UConn Chapter to receive two of its annual honors.

During a ceremony to be held at the Connecticut State Capitol on Tues., April 17, Dr. Madaus will be presented with both the "Teaching Promise" and "Teaching Innovation" awards.

Dr. Madaus' research focuses on learning disabilities and related issues, including assessment and transition from high school to college, post-secondary education and outcomes of adults with LD.

He currently serves on the editorial boards of: the Journal of Postsecondary Education and Disability, Learning Disabilities: A Multidisciplinary Journal, Career Development for Exceptional Individuals.

249 Glenbrook Road - Unit 2064, Storrs, CT 06269-2064

Phone: (860)486-3813 Fax: (860) 486-0210

www.education.uconn.edu